

PO Box 892
Monterey, CA 93942
408.832.4217

darcie@darciefohrman.com
www.darciefohrman.com

MUSEUM EXHIBITIONS INDEPENDENT CONSULTANT, 1987 - PRESENT

I provide services for all aspects of museum exhibition development and design, including interpretive planning and facilitating the process from concept through installation. Collaborating with museum staff, consultants, trustees, and community representatives, I facilitate the creation of interdisciplinary, emotionally engaging visitor experiences that are relevant to contemporary issues for all types of museums.

SELECTED PROJECTS

- University of California Santa Cruz, Center for Agroecology and Sustainability 50th anniversary exhibition at the Hay Barn, opening July 2017.
- University of California San Francisco 150th anniversary exhibition at the Exploratorium, 2015.
- Levine Museum of the New South, Charlotte, NC. Lead of planning and design team for four 3,500 square foot temporary interactive exhibitions created as catalysts for facilitated dialogues in yearlong community building projects: IMLS planning grant for Reading, Writing, and Race: One Children's Book and the Power of Stories, 2014, about how our children's books influence how we see others and ourselves, awarded NEH and IMLS implementation grants, 2016, not built; ¡NUEVO! Latinos and the New South, 2015, exploring the diversity of the Latino experience past and present, traveled to Atlanta History Museum and Birmingham Civil Rights Museum; CHANGING PLACES: From Black and White to Technicolor, as a catalyst for facilitated dialogs "Speaking of Change," 2009, exploring how Charlotte is dealing with rapid demographic and cultural change. With a goal of increasing cross-cultural understanding, the Changing Places project was a new approach to exhibit development and program delivery by working with community partners at every stage. Winner of 2010 American Association of Museums Excellence in Exhibition Competition and reviewed in Curator: The Museum Journal, Oct 2010; and COURAGE: The Carolina Story that Changed America temporary exhibition presented as a moving story about the courage and struggle of the community which filed the first Supreme Court case that became Brown vs Board of Education which desegregated US public schools, 2004, catalyst for "Conversations in Courage" a community building project to address race and segregation issues today. 2005 AAM Excellence in Exhibition Award the American Association for State and Local History Award for Best Exhibition.
- The Exploratorium, San Francisco. Co-exhibition Development and Design of 5 exhibitions: 2013, East Gallery, Living Systems for the new museum at Pier 15; 2011, Life Around Us; 2010 Living Liquid; 2001, Revealing Bodies, Co-Director of interpretive planning and design for this art, artifact and interactive temporary exhibition, winner of the 2001 American Association. of Museums Exhibition Competition; and 1999, FROGS! Designer of this extended temporary exhibition which included live animals, cultural artifacts, immersive environments, and interactive exhibits, included in Beyond Best Practices, edited by McLean/McEver, 2004.
- Oakland Museum of California. 2013, Above and Below: Stories from Our Changing Bay, special exhibition about how nature and humans change the San Francisco Bay, exhibition developer and team facilitator; 2013, facilitator of convening on Evaluation; 2012, facilitator of convening on Interdisciplinary Practice; 2008 & 2009 Peer review advisor and concept brainstorming for the new history and science galleries; 1996, This Is Our Land! Teens Speak Out on Nature and Community in the City Interpretive planning and exhibition design facilitating community teen paid interns for this Lila Wallis Foundation Funded Urban Spaces Project.

- Museum of Tolerance, Los Angeles. 2010 For All the Children / Para Todos Los Niños Interpretive planning, development and design for exhibition about the Latino fight for school desegregation in CA in the 1940s shown in conjunction with my design of the traveling version of COURAGE from the Levine Museum of the New South, Charlotte, NC.
- California Academy of Sciences, San Francisco, CA. 2008, exhibition development to create the natural history exhibits for the new museum in Golden Gate Park; Wild Salmon: The Upstream Struggle, Concept development for traveling NSF funded interactive exhibition, 1997.
- Utah Museum of Natural History, Salt Lake City. 2007, peer review advisor of 50% design package for new museum.
- Pacific Grove Natural History Museum Return to the Sea of Cortez, 2006, planning and design of traveling exhibition documenting the 2004 voyage to recreate John Steinbeck & Ed Ricketts 1941 voyage.
- Cantor Arts Center, the Stanford University Museum, Stanford, CA 2004, planning and design of QUESTION, collaborating with & coaching all the curators to create an innovative, interactive art museum experience that responded to visitors' questions about art and museum practice.
- Yeshiva University Museum, New York, NY. 2003, A Portion of the People: 300 Years of Southern Jewish Life Design and installation supervision for the NY installation of this NEH funded traveling exhibition.
- Skirball Cultural Center, Los Angeles, CA. Romance & Ritual: Celebrating the Jewish Wedding, Interpretive planning and design of this temporary costume exhibition, 2001; and Henry Mosler Rediscovered, a temporary exhibition (traveled), 1997.
- United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, Washington, DC. Daniel's Story: Remember the Children, National Park Service contract award, for interpretive planning, design, and project management of this award winning, permanent interactive children's exhibition, 1992, designed the traveling version.
- Port Discovery: The Children's Museum of Baltimore, MD. Girls Development of an interpretive plan for a traveling interactive exhibition celebrating girlhood, 1998.
- Monterey County Planning Department, Salinas, CA. Made in Spreckels Interpretive planning and design of a traveling exhibition about the history of this company town and the Spreckels Sugar Company, 1998.
- Judah L. Magnes Museum, Berkeley, CA. Souvenirs from Israel 1948-1998, interpretive planning and design of this temporary exhibition, 1998.
- Salinas Valley Memorial Hospital, Salinas, CA. Museum of Medical History Planning and design of a permanent medical history museum, 1998.
- Bay Area Discovery Museum, Sausalito, CA. In the Heart of the Home, Development, design and installation interactive ethnic kitchens, 1995; and interpretive planning for a Youth Museum Exhibit Consortium interactive traveling exhibition, Gumby's World: Adventures into Books, 1997.
- Presidio of San Francisco, Golden Gate National Recreation Area, San Francisco, CA. Education and Visitor Center, research and concept planning of an Interpretive Plan, 1996.
- Museum of San Diego History, Balboa Park, CA. From Bustles to Bikinis: A Century of Changing Beach Fashion, Interpretive planning and design of this interactive costume exhibition on public appearances and hidden values, 1996. In a case study (Serrell, AAM 1998) this was one of four most thoroughly used exhibitions.
- Brookfield Zoo, Brookfield, IL. Penguin Coast, Planning and concept design of interpretive components of live animal habitat for a new building, 1994.
- Skirball Museum at Hebrew Union College, Los Angeles. Development and design of the exhibitions: Hooray for Yiddish Theater in America, 1996; Tradition & Revolution: Jewish Renaissance in Russian Avant-Garde Art, 1993; Project Americana Sampler, 1992; Memories of Alsace: Folk Art and Jewish Tradition, 1991; The Torah, 1988.

- Point Lobos State Reserve, Carmel, CA. The Whalers Cabin Annex Interpretive plan, design, production, and installation of permanent whaling exhibition, 1993.
- California State Parks & Recreation, Monterey State Historic Park, CA. First Brick House Interpretive planning and design of permanent interpretive exhibition and recreation of period kitchen for historic building, 1990.
- De Saisset Museum, Santa Clara University, San Jose, interpretive planning and redesign of History galleries, 1989.
- Crocker Art Museum, Sacramento. The Modern Spirit in Chinese Painting, design and installation supervision of temporary exhibition; and the Harold Wing Gallery, design proposal for renovation of temporary exhibition gallery, 1988.
- Pacific Heritage Museum, San Francisco. The Opening Door: American Presence in China & Japan 1840-1890, concept development, project management for temporary exhibition, 1987.
- Wilshire Boulevard Temple, Los Angeles. History of the Jews of Los Angeles, Interpretive planning and design of permanent exhibition, 1989.

DIRECTOR OF EXHIBITIONS, SAN DIEGO MUSEUM OF ART, 1979 –1987

As a member of the senior staff of this major city museum in Balboa Park, I prepared and administered the annual budget and schedule and supervised full-time and temporary employees and contractors. Initiated the collaborative approach to interpretive exhibition development, designed and coordinated installation in 14,000 sq. ft. galleries of 12-18 special exhibitions per year; designed and supervised reinterpretation and renovation of 15 permanent galleries, and managed the renovation five temporary exhibition galleries.

Selected Major Exhibitions Planning and Design at SDMA: Modern German Masterpieces from The St. Louis Art Museum / Oskar Schlemmer / Dr. Seuss from Then to Now (traveled) / Ansel Adams: Classic Images / Master Drawings by Gericault / American Masters: The Thyssen Bornemisza Collection / Lautrec / Art of the European Goldsmith: Silver from the Schroder Collection / British Art Now / Fortissimo! Thirty Years from the Richard Brown Baker Collection of Contemporary Art / Homage to Amanda: Two Hundred Years of American Quilts from the Collection of Edwin Binney III and Gail Binney-Winslow (traveled through SITES) / Dutch and Flemish Masters: Paintings from the Vienna Academy of Fine Arts / The Precious Legacy: Judaic Treasures from the Czechoslovakia State Collections / Morris Graves: Vision of the Inner Eye / Fifty Years of Babar / The Art of the Muppets / The Art of Chivalry: Arms and Armor from the Metropolitan Museum of Art / Of Time and Place: American Figurative Art from The Corcoran Gallery / Leonardo da Vinci: Leonardo's Return to Vinci / Sculpture in California Modern Masters: 20th c. Paintings from the Collection of the New York Museum of Modern Art / Renaissance of Islam: Art of the Mamluks / The Golden Treasures of Peru / Five Thousand Years of Art from the Metropolitan Museum of Art / Turkish Treasures from the Collection of Edwin Binney III

DIRECTOR OF EXHIBITS, SPERTUS MUSEUM OF JUDAICA, CHICAGO 1971-79

Responsible for exhibition planning, design, project supervision and management, production, and installation of over forty temporary art, history and ethnography exhibitions. Coordinated outside contractors on permanent gallery installation, and designed and produced all graphics and publications. Co-developed/designed REMEMBER, the first permanent Holocaust museum exhibition in the US.

FACULTY POSITIONS

- University of Victoria, BC, Instructor, Exhibition Planning & Design week long course, 2011
- JFK University, Department of Museum Studies Graduate Program, Adjunct Professor, Exhibition Development and Design, 1989-1997; Chair search committee, 1998
- Santa Catalina School, Monterey, CA, Gallery Director 1991 – 1995, and Art History Faculty, Humanities Department, 1989-1995
- Chicago Board of Education, Marshall Upper Grade Center, Art Teacher 1967-1970

LECTURES AND SEMINARS ON EXHIBITION PLANNING AND DESIGN

- American Association of Museums Annual Meetings, on numerous panels over the years

- Western Museums Associations Annual Meeting, on numerous panels over the years
- University of Washington, Seattle. Museum Studies Program, 2010.
- National Association for Museum Exhibition (NAME) with AAM, Organizer and Coordinator of Advanced Professional Retreats: Creativity and Collaboration, Monterey, CA 2009; Insights: Exploring Diverse Models of the Creative Process, Boulder, CO 1991; Western Museums Conference, Tucson, AR, 2002.
- ASTC, Association of Science-Technology Centers, 2007
- SEGD, Society for Environmental Graphic Design, Retreat at Cranbrook, MI, 2006
- Visitor Studies Association (VSA), 2006
- Jewish Historical Society 27th Annual Southern Conference, 2002
- Monterey Youth Museum, Monterey, CA, 1996
- Alumnae Resources, San Francisco, 1993
- New York State Museum, Albany, NY, 1989
- George Washington University, Museum Studies Dept., Washington, DC, 1986
- Western /Mountain Plains Museums Associations Annual Mtg., 1985, 2007, 2010
- Mountain Plains Museum Association Exhibit Workshop, 1985
- University of California, San Diego, Museum Studies class, 1981 and 1982
- Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service, SITES seminar on Interpretive Exhibition Design, co-organizer, 1982
- San Diego State University, Museum Studies class, 1980 through 1986
- University of San Diego, Museum Studies class, 1982 through 1986
- Southwest Museum Educators' Committee Meeting, Los Angeles, 1982
- School of the Art Institute of Chicago, Environmental Design Dept., 1979

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

- The Museum Group, museumgroup.com The Museum Group is a consortium of senior museum consultants founded in 1995 for independent museum professionals who were in senior positions in museums. Our mission is to work with museums to help them achieve their greatest potential in an ever-changing world. President 2014-present.
- National Association for Museum Exhibition, NAME, Current & Founding Member 1980; Office and AAM Program Chair 1983-1993, Education Advisor 1993-2008; Journal Editorial Board 2008- present, Co-coordinator Creativity & Collaboration Retreats 1991, 2001, 2011
- American Association of Museums, member 1975-present
- Art Table, Inc. National organization for women leaders in the visual arts, since 1983
- Monterey Cultural Council, Arts Granting Panel, 1995
- Member: Visitor Studies Association; Museum Education Roundtable; Western Museum Association; San Francisco Cultural Connections; Muse-X, Museum Association, San Diego, Founder/Chair, 1980-86
- Save Our Heritage Organization, Preservations Awards, Juror, 1985
- American Institute of Architects, San Diego, Orchids and Onions Awards, Juror

PUBLICATIONS

- Fohrman, Darcie / Janeen Bryant. Radical Collaboration, Exhibition Journal, National Association for Museum Exhibition, 2017
- McLean, Kathleen / Wendy Pollock. Visitor Voices in Museum Exhibitions, ASTC, 2007. Question at the Cantor Arts Center at Stanford University as an example of Expressing and Co-Creating; contributed many photographs.
- McLean, Kathleen / McEver, Catherine. Beyond Best Practices, 2004.
- Fohrman, Darcie. Exhibition Reviews, Curator: The Museum Journal, Volume 44 Number 2, 2001 and Volume 51 Number 1, 2008.

- McLean, Kathleen and McEver, Catherine. Are We There Yet? Conversations about Best Practices in Science Exhibition Development, 2004.
- Serrell, Beverly. Paying Attention: Visitors and Museum Exhibitions. AAM, 1998. In this case study From Bustles to Bikinis at the Museum of San Diego History was one of four most thoroughly used exhibitions.
- McLean, Kathleen. Planning for People in Museums. ASTC, 1993.
- Pearce, Susan. Objects of Knowledge. The Athlone Press Ltd, 1990. A review of the Holocaust Memorial exhibition at Spertus Museum of Judaica by Helen Coxall
- Klein, Larry. Exhibits: Planning and Design. Madison Square Press, 1986.
- Fohrman, Darcie. National Association for Museum Exhibition, Exhibitionist, 1986.
- Fohrman, Darcie. Western Museum Conference Newsletter, 1981.

COMMUNITY PROJECTS

- Youth Arts Collective, Board of Directors and President of the Board, 2015-present. Art studio and programs for youth 18-23.
- Arts Habitat, Board of Directors, 2000-present. Creating a place for creating art, non-profit live-work artist housing and studios at the historic East Garrison at former Fort Ord, Monterey, CA; Curator of Arts in Progress monthly event, 2009-present.
- Pacific Grove Natural History Museum, Exhibitions Committee, 2009-2014. Creating strategic planning documents and rethinking the museum exhibitions program preparing for AAM reaccreditation, assist with concept planning for temporary exhibitions; Board of Trustees 1990-1996.
- Monterey Museum of Art, co-coordinator of the Art Ambassadors Youth Program, facilitating paid high school interns creating an exhibition over the school year, 1998-2003.
- Lyceum, Monterey County, Board Member, coordinator of First Night Monterey middle school art project to bring artists into the schools, 1998-2001

EDUCATION

- School of the Art Institute of Chicago, Post Graduate Courses, Photography and Video
- University of the Americas, Mexico City, study abroad program
- Ohio State University, Bachelor of Science Degree in Art Education